Irrigation projects in Chhattisgarh

†2306. SHRIMATI KAMLA MANHAR:
SHRI MOTILAL VORA:

Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) the number of irrigation projects sanctioned by Government of Chhattisgarh in the year 2004-05, district-wise;

(b) the total amount for which provision has been made for the year 2004-05 for Chhattisgarh State alongwith the amount allotted as on date;

(c) the number of schemes pending with the Government for sanction alongwith the names of districts of Chhattisgarh to which they belong; and

(d) by when these will be sanctioned and by when the amount will be provided?

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI JAY PRAKASH NARAYAN YADAV): (a) Statement enclosed as Annexure (see below).

(b) Irrigation being a State subject the irrigation projects are planned, formulated, executed and funded by the State Governments out of their own resources and as per their priorities. Allocation to various sectors including irrigation is made by the State Governments. Even project-wise allocation within the irrigation sector is made by the State Governments themselves. The approved Annual Plan 2004-05 of Chhattisgarh provides Rs.422.59 crore for major and medium irrigation.

(c) and (d) One major irrigation project namely Kelo Project benefitting Raigarh district of Chhattisgarh is under techno-economic appraisal in the Central Water Commission and Sutipat Reservoir Project (medium) benefitting Rajnandgaon district of Chhattisgarh has been accepted by the Advisory Committee of Ministry of Water Resources subject to certain observations. The clearance of the projects depends upon the promptness with which the State Government comply with the observations of the Central appraising agencies.
